McPherson And Worley Win Legislative Seats; Gross Bows To Lind For Congress

Adams county voters on Tuesday kept their representation in the state Legislature solidly Republican. They helped elect Attorney Donald P. McPherson, Jr., as the new Republican senator from the Adams-Franklin district with a wide lead and returned Assemblyman Francis Worley to the state house for his fourth consecutive term.

Senator-elect McPherson topped the Republican ticket in Adams

Congressman Chester H. Gross, Republican incumbent from the Twenty-first district, received a resounding defeat Tuesday at the hands of James F. Lind, York Democrat, in a contest that attracted wide interest throughout the York-Adams-Franklin district.

Gross carried Adams and Franklin counties where the Republicans hold comfortable leads on the registration rolls but lost York county, home of both candidates, by a margin of nearly 13,000 votes.

The figures on the Congressional race by counties follow:

	Gross	Lind
Adams	7,507	5,927
Franklin	11,578	7,930
York	27,614	40,290

Totals 46,699 54,147
Lind's majority 7,448

Huge York Victory
Congressman-elect Lind, who will be the first Democratic congressman from this district since the last term served by the late Harry L. Haines in 1941-1942, achieved his victory in a district where the GOP held a lead of 831 on the registration rolls. But he stretched the Democrats' registered majority in York county of about 8,000 voters to nearly 13,000 and victory.

Congressman Gross failed to sustain the registered GOP lead in Franklin county, carrying that county with a total of 8,125 votes. His Democratic opponent, Joseph P. Nolan of Chambersburg, received 5,271 in this county.

Assemblyman Francis Worley, who said on election night that he is the first assemblyman from this district ever to be elected for four consecutive two-year terms since the county was founded in 1900, carried the county by 2,397 votes over Burgess Richard S. Cratin of McSherrystown.

County's Senate Vote

The voting on the State Senator contest resulted as follows in the unofficial count election night:

Adams	8,125	5,271
Franklin	11,769	7,463

Totals 19,894 12,734
McPherson's majority 7,169

but McPherson's margin over his opponent in this county was the largest rolled up by any Republican candidate here on Tuesday. He topped Mr. Nolan by 2,854.

Mr. McPherson will succeed State Senator Paul M. Crider of Franklin county as the senatorial representative from the 33rd district.

Unofficial returns show Mr. Worley also carried all but 11 of the county's 42 districts. The totals were Worley, 7,903 and Cratin, 5,506.

Both Mr. Cratin and Mr. Nolan were put on the ticket after regular nominees chosen at the spring primaries withdrew. Paul Moomaw of Waynesboro had been chosen at the primaries for the state Senate by the Democrats and M. E. Freed had been nominated for the Assembly. Both withdrew early in the summer and Nolan and Cratin were picked to make the race.

76 Per Cent Voted In Adams County

A total of 13,624 Adams countians voted Tuesday, or 76.2 per cent of the 17,865 who were registered and qualified to cast ballots.

Straight tickets predominated and sped the count for election boards throughout the county. All districts had reported by 11:35 o'clock Tuesday night, setting a speed record not matched here in many years.

DEWEY BEATS TRUMAN HERE 7,982 TO 5,584

Governor Thomas E. Dewey carried Adams county Tuesday—along with all of his running mates on the Republican ticket—but his margin here was only 2,398 compared with the 2,900 votes by which he topped the late President Roosevelt in this county four years ago.

Second only to State Senator-elect Donald P. McPherson in this county, Governor Dewey was given 7,982 votes compared with 5,584 for President Truman. The only other presidential candidate on whom totals were compiled Tuesday night was Henry A. Wallace who received 43 votes in Adams county.

Republican margins in this county helped GOP candidates take over the fiscal offices of State Treasurer and Auditor General for the first time since the days of Governor George H. Earle.

The voting for State Treasurer in Adams county gave Charles R. Barber, Republican, 7,726, and W. J. Lane, Democrat, 5,562. For Auditor General, Weldon B. Heyburn, Republican, was given 7,679, and Ramsey Black, Democrat, 5,787.

Governor Dewey carried 31 of the 42 voting districts in Adams county, including the four precincts in Gettysburg.

As the returns came in here Dewey took an early lead and never lost it. His final vote topping President Truman by 2,398 exceeded the registered Republican margin in the county of 2,120.

GOP Was Confident

Republicans were confident of a Dewey landslide, or at least a substantial victory, in the presidential race, even though conceding that the Congressional fights might be "close."

Indications that Gettysburg was taking a Dewey victory for granted were seen Tuesday night. There was little activity on the streets. At the office of the county commissioners in the court house there was no unusual activity and no crowds.

The editorial office of The Gettysburg Times remained open until late this morning. At no time was there a large crowd. Persons in (Please Turn To Page 6)

Abbottstown turned out in full force for the election, with only 40 of the 242 registered voters failing to vote. Freedom and Tyrone township No. 2 turned in excellent vote getting out performances. In Tyrone Two only 43 of the 158 voters missed their chance to ballot and in Freedom 49 of the 175 registered neglected to vote.

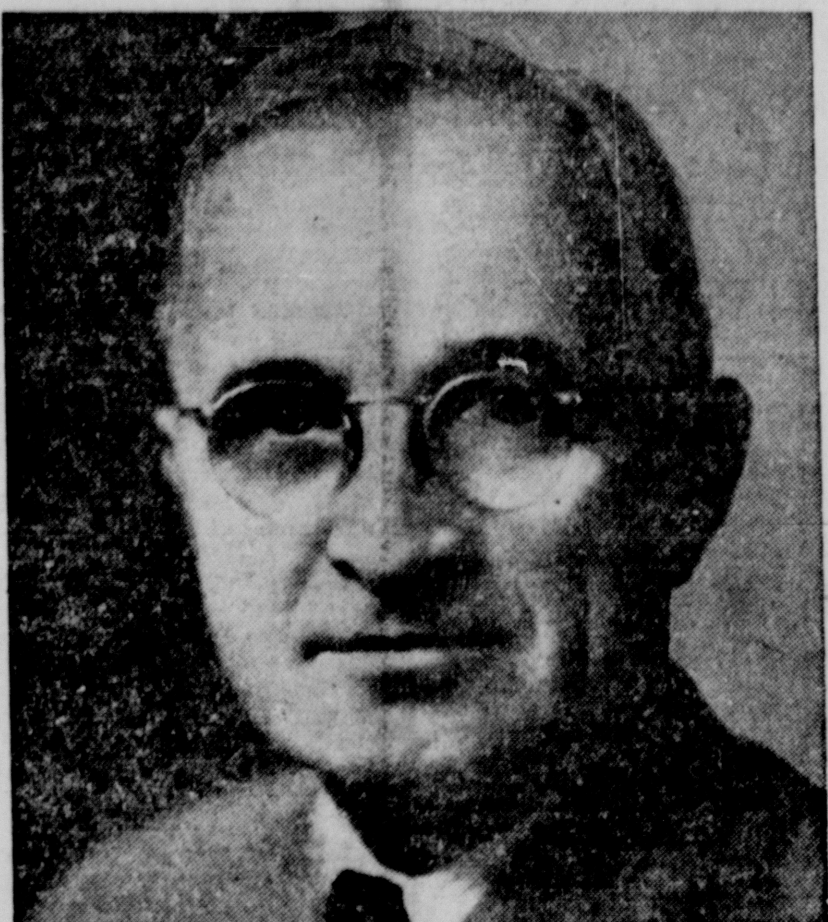

Election officials had only one person call at the court house to find out why he couldn't vote. It developed that he registered in one township but actually lived in another. The court straightened out his registration and he departed happily to visit the right election house.

Adams county's possible vote in the election was 17,865; a total of 9,879 Republicans; 7,759 Democrats plus some non-partisans, a socialist, a progressive and such.

Nine hundred and ninety-nine Littlestown residents out of 1,281 eligible voters cast their ballot, 420 in the First ward and 579 in the Second. The eligible vote in the First ward was 559 and in the Second, 722.

An hour and 20 minutes after the polls closed the first returns reached the court house when the Highland township election board arrived at the county building with their sealed ballot boxes and report sheets. Ten minutes later the first district of Mt. Pleasant township came in.

There was a tremendous rush of last minute voters in some districts. In the Third ward—which voted at the court house—for one of the few times in history, there was a line-up of voters extending far down the court house hall at 8 o'clock, the time for closing the polling (Please Turn To Page 2)

PRESIDENT TRUMAN

LOCAL GOP ARE AMAZED OVER TRUMAN SWING

Dyed-in-the-wool Republicans and Dewey backers in Gettysburg and Adams county, even though the county was "saved" for the G. O. P., were as amazed today at what appeared to be the biggest upset in modern American political history as the Democrats.

Few Democrats could be found, as late as the closing of the polls at 8 o'clock Tuesday night, who would predict a Truman victory. Adams county held one thing in common with the rest of the nation—including the poll-takers and so-called experts—it was completely fooled.

Republicans were confident of a Dewey landslide, or at least a substantial victory, in the presidential race, even though conceding that the Congressional fights might be "close."

Indications that Gettysburg was taking a Dewey victory for granted were seen Tuesday night. There was little activity on the streets. At the office of the county commissioners in the court house there was no unusual activity and no crowds.

McPherson Follows In Father's Steps

The election of Attorney Donald P. McPherson, Jr., to the state Senate gives him an office once filled by his father, the late Judge Donald P. McPherson.

Judge McPherson, who died in March, 1937, after 20 years on the Adams county bench, was elected to the state Senate in 1900 for a four-year term and did not seek re-election. His election to the Senate followed one two-year term in the General Assembly as Adams county's representative there.

Weaver To Speak At Reserve Meeting

The 839th Reserve Composite Group, commanded by Col. Edward J. Nowicki will meet this evening at 7:30 o'clock at Glatfelter hall with Col. William G. Weaver as the speaker. He will have as his topic the present day organization of the adjutant general's department.

Colonel Nowicki urged all members of the reserve to attend the session. "Both from patriotic and personal reasons members should keep active in the reserve," he added. "Meetings such as the one tonight count as points toward retirement pay and also keep reservists up to date with new developments in the army," he said.

Dewey Wires Congratulations

New York, Nov. 3 (AP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey today conceded the Presidential election to President Truman.

The Republican Presidential nominee's press secretary, James Hagerty, announced at 11:15 a. m. (EST) that Dewey had sent a telegram to Mr. Truman conceding the election.

The text of the telegram: "My heartfelt congratulations to you on your election and every good wish for a successful administration, and I urge all Americans to unite behind you in support of every effort to keep our nation strong and free and establish peace in the world."

COBEAN FAMILY HISTORY TOLD; DISCUSS SESQUI

A report on the progress being made with plans for observance of the Adams county Sesqui-Centennial in 1950 and a presentation of a history of the Cobean family featured the November meeting of the Adams County Historical society Tuesday evening in the society's rooms in the court house basement.

The report on the Sesqui plans was made by Dr. Robert Fortenbaugh, member of the Sesqui planning committee. The movement for the Sesqui celebration was initiated last year by the historical society.

Dr. Fortenbaugh said plans for the observance now are in the hands of a general committee of 30 members made up of an original group selected from all parts of the county by the county commissioners and augmented by chairmen and co-chairmen of 15 sub-committees in whose hands much of the detail for the Sesqui will rest.

He said the actual anniversary date, January 22, 1950 will be observed in the churches and by other groups during that week while a general three- or four-day celebration has been tentatively set for late September of that year. Dr. Fortenbaugh said the society members will be called upon to aid the history-writing committee particularly in its work.

Leads His Democratic Party To Amazing Upset-Victory; Opponent Concedes Election

(By The Associated Press)

President Truman, in an astounding upset of pre-balling predictions, today won the presidency. He will have a Democratic Senate and House to work with him.

Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, his Republican opponent, conceded Mr. Truman's election at 11:15 a. m. (EST).

At that time, Mr. Truman was leading in 28 states having 304 electoral votes. Needed to win are 266 electoral votes.

The last Republican hope that Dewey might nose out Truman in the electoral vote, even though he was trailing well behind in popular balloting, apparently faded when late California returns put Truman in front in that state.

Truman Had Commanding Lead

At the time Dewey conceded, Truman was leading in or had won the following states:

Arizona, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Florida, Georgia, Idaho, Illinois, Iowa, Kentucky, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Missouri, Montana, Nevada, New Mexico, North Carolina, Ohio, Oklahoma, Rhode Island, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, Virginia, Washington, West Virginia, Wisconsin and Wyoming. Dewey was leading in these:

Connecticut, Delaware, Indiana, Kansas, Maine, Maryland, Michigan, Nebraska, New Hampshire, New Jersey, North Dakota, Oregon, Pennsylvania, South Dakota and Vermont.

Thurmond was in front in four states having a total of 38 electoral votes. He had won Alabama, Mississippi and South Carolina, and was leading in Louisiana. In Tennessee, two electoral votes are in doubt between Truman and Thurmond.

Mr. Truman plans to return to Washington from Independence, Mo., tomorrow, then go to Key West, Fla., Sunday, according to Washington friends who have been in touch with his Kansas City headquarters.

GOP Loses Congress

Even before the President's victory was assured, the returns had clinched Democratic control of Congress, wresting it away from the Republicans who won it two years ago.

The indicated Congressional lineup is: Senate: 54 Democrats and 42 Republicans.

House: 264 Democrats; 188 Republicans, and one American-Labor. While these may not be the final figures, it is clear that Mr. Truman will have a working majority of his

APPEAL MADE TO ROTARIANS FOR OLD BOOKS

A letter was read at the meeting of the Littlestown Rotary club on Tuesday evening in Schott's banquet hall from Francis C. Lindaman, son of Mrs. Gertrude A. Lindaman, East King street, who is liaison and security officer for the American Military Government in Bavaria, Germany, in which he told of his duties and efforts to teach the German people the benefits and privileges of democracy. He also made an appeal to the club as well as to the other clubs of the community and the county for old books and magazines for the libraries there.

Lindaman, who is a graduate of Littlestown high school and Gettysburg college, has been overseas the greater part of the last five years, the last two of which, he served as director of Personnel for the American Red Cross in Great Britain and Western Europe. He received his present appointment and assumed his duties about mid-September. The work involves largely liaison work between the German civil government and the Civil Affairs Division of the American Military Government, whose headquarters are in Berlin.

Luther D. Snyder, president, was in charge of the meeting and the Rev. Nevin E. Smith, a Hanover Rotarian, was a visitor. Nevaeh Crouse contributed the guest package which was received by Charles Ritter.

DEMOCRATS WIN MOST OF GOVERNORSHIPS

Washington, Nov. 3 (AP) — Democrats took majority control of the nation's governorships in yesterday's election, winning at least six statehouses previously held by Republicans.

Before the voting the lineup was a 24 to 24 standoff, but Democrats now are assured of at least 31 of the 48.

Returns at 8 a. m. (E.S.T.) gave the Democrats 17 victories and the Republicans eight in 33 state contests. In the eight unsettled races, Democratic candidates held the lead in three and Republicans in five.

Governorships won by the Democrats from Republicans were in Ohio, Illinois, Connecticut, Delaware, Indiana and Montana.

Only one Democratic governorship was lost to the Republicans — Utah.

The top turnovers were in Ohio and Illinois. Republican Gov. Thomas J. Herbert was defeated for a second Ohio term by former Democratic Gov. Frank J. Lausche.

In Illinois, Gov. Dwight H. Green, Republican National convention keynote, was unseated by Adlai E. Stevenson, Chicago lawyer, professor and diplomat.

Connecticut elected former OPA Chief Chester Bowles, ardent new dealer, over Republican Gov. James C. Shannon.

In Indiana, Henry F. Schriker, Democratic governor in 1940-44, was chosen over Hobart Creighton, poultry producer who once served in the Department of Agriculture under former secretary Clinton P. Anderson.

Other states in which Democrats were elected included Georgia, Florida, Tennessee, Rhode Island, Arkansas, North Carolina, Texas, Missouri, West Virginia, Colorado, Delaware, Arizona, and Montana.

In the lone Republican victory over a Democratic incumbent, Gov. Herbert B. Maw of Utah was defeated for re-election by J. Bracken Lee.

Other Republican victories were in Vermont, Iowa, Kansas, Oregon, Wisconsin, South Dakota, Utah and Maine. The Maine governor was chosen in the state election September 13.

Unsettled races in which Democrats were leading were in Massachusetts, Michigan, and New Mexico. Republicans were leading in Minnesota, Nebraska, North Dakota, New Hampshire and Washington.

Truman Defeats

that there would be no shift in American foreign policy. The present policy has been called bi-partisan, but some editors have been evidenced in Europe over the widely held pre-election expectation that a change in political administrations was coming.

In Washington, speculation already is running high that Mr. Truman now will make many shifts in his own administration.

This is based on the view that he got little help in his campaign from many Democratic office-holders who had looked on it as a lost cause. Among the cabinet members, Mr. Truman's chief campaign help came from Secretary of Labor Maurice Tobin and Secretary of Agriculture Charles Brannan.

The dopesters figure these two will surely stay on, but are inclined to list many other high officials as "doubtful" of continuing as members of the administration family.

Close associates of Secretary of State Marshall said in Paris he definitely plans to leave that post in January, and Undersecretary of State Robert A. Lovett is also reported to be planning to leave.

In the case of Marshall, the question is whether the President might try to talk him into staying on. A soldier who took the cabinet job because he thought it was a duty call, there was never any expectation among the President's inner circle that Marshall would take the campaign trail in Mr. Truman's behalf.

Along with their big victory in the White House and Congressional contests, the Democrats made many gains in state and local offices.

They captured the governorships from Republicans in Ohio, Michigan, Illinois, Connecticut, Delaware, Indiana and Montana. The Republicans overturned the Democratic administration in Utah.

Before the election, the 48 states were split evenly in State House administrations — 24 Republicans and 24 Democrats.

The shifts indicated the Democrats would now have 30 and the Republican 18—barring some upset in still undecided races.

Mr. Truman topped every kind of odds to hold on to his job as President.

He licked Dewey in the closest presidential race in 32 years and in as amazing an upset as the American public ever helped engineer.

DEWEY CLINGS DESPERATELY ON FINAL VOTE

New York, Nov. 3 (AP) — Gov. Thomas E. Dewey was pictured early today as "still confident" he would overcome the surprising lead Harry S. Truman held in the Presidential race.

The Republican candidate kept a night long vigil as election returns, which stunned his aides, moved into the Dewey suite on the 15th floor of the Roosevelt hotel.

"The Governor is still confident he will win," his press secretary, James C. Hagerty, told reporters at 4:45 a. m. (EST).

But there were no more flat claims of victory from the Dewey camp as morning came on.

Fingers Are Crossed

Fingers were crossed all over the place.

The New York Governor took up his watch immediately after returning to his hotel at 8:35 p. m. (EST) last night from a dinner at the Manhattan home of close friends.

At 4:55 a. m. (EST) Hagerty announced that neither Dewey nor his campaign manager, Herbert Brownell, Jr., would have any statement on the election until final returns were in.

Hagerty reported that still sitting with the Governor were Mrs. Dewey, his 70-year-old mother, Mrs. George M. Dewey; Elliott V. Bell, New York state superintendent of banks; Paul E. Lockwood, Dewey's secretary, and Brownell.

Hagerty said the Governor planned to remain up until the final outcome of the election was known.

Won't Give Up

The Dewey's sons, Thomas, 16 and John, 13, were on hand until around midnight. John went off to bed first and was followed shortly by Thomas.

Nobody on the Dewey staff was giving up. But tears welled in the eyes of some dog-tired secretaries. The Dewey people had resigned themselves to loss of the Senate and they were uneasy about the House of Representatives.

Dewey built his whole campaign around a drive to maintain Republican control of the Senate. He never had any doubt the GOP would hold the House.

All except the small group with the Governor were barred from the GOP candidate's suite.

Will Form Adult Stamp Club Here

Formation of an adult stamp club here will be effected at a meeting Thursday evening at 8 o'clock, the Gettysburg Recreation Association announced today.

Many counties have become interested in stamps and stamp collection because of the November 19 stamp honoring the 85th anniversary of Lincoln's Gettysburg Address here, the association pointed out. As a result it has been decided to form a local stamp club open to all persons interested.

The initial session will be held Thursday evening at the recreation center with John D. Lipsey, Jr., of the Lincoln Fellowship speaking on "The Lincoln Stamp."

Barkley then went back to bed.

REDS BOLSTER WORLD REVOLT AIM IN CHINA

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
(AP Foreign Affairs Analyst)

Yesterday in discussing the Chinese Communists' great military victory in Manchuria, I said that this also was a triumph for Russia and that it vastly strengthened the hand of Moscow in its world revolution for the spread of the ism.

In this connection I branded as buncombe the claim that the Chinese Reds are just humble agrarians without any Soviet affiliation. We return to the subject again because of its great importance to the nations which are battling Communism, and because we have had a fresh development which gives undisputable proof of the falsity of the agrarian tale.

Hold Wide Area

Mao Tze-Tung, chairman of the Chinese Communist party, has written a report of the Red successes in China for the bulletin of the Cominform (Communist International Information Bureau) which has headquarters in Bucharest, Romania. The Cominform is generally accepted by observers to be the successor to the Comintern, or General staff of world revolution, which was "abolished" by Moscow in 1943 because of hostility of the western powers to it.

So Mao Tze-Tung reports to the Cominform, which is the voice of Moscow. He says in his account (which presumably was written before the fall of Mukden, capital of Manchuria) that his forces occupy 907,000 square miles of territory, or about 24.5 per cent of China. He also claims that 168,000,000 people, or some 35 per cent of China's population, are under Communist rule.

Whether his figures are accurate, the fact remains that the Chinese Communists threaten to overrun all China, thus presenting Russia with a base which might well dominate the entire orient. The Nationalist China of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek is pretty well shot to pieces—politically, economically and militarily. And it looks to America to rescue it.

first Protestants to land in America. They built a fort at Port Royal, South Carolina, but it was later destroyed during assaults on the Huguenots by the Spanish from Florida and by Indians. Many of the immigrants were slain.

Cobean in this county, the history said, antedate by a number of years the American Revolution and a Samuel Cobean from Cumberland township is listed in Pennsylvania Archives as an officer with the York county militia.

Captain Samuel Alexander Cobean, who came to this country before 1767, built a saw and grist mill along Marsh creek, below the site of the old stone arch bridge and several generations of Cobean lived there. Captain Cobean was the father of Col. Alexander Cobean, first president of the Gettysburg National bank and builder of the Wills house and the old county jail.

Old Home Shelled

Civil war history connected with the old Cobean farm a mile and a half north of here along the Biglerville road was recounted. A Confederate engineer officer, General Trimble, had a leg amputated in that house which was struck several times by Union cannon balls on what is now Howard avenue. The house was then occupied by Mrs. McIlhenny's grandfather, Samuel Alexander Cobean. She also told of her father's service in the Civil war. He was James Harvey Cobean who served with the 21st Penna Volunteer Cavalry.

The two Cobean farms, originally one, are now owned by Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Pemberton and M. V. Coleman.

Mrs. E. S. Lewars presented to the society for Mrs. Cecelia Showers of Manchester, Md., a hand-carved wooden rosette which once held the draperies on the wingglass pulpit in the Great Conewago Presbyterian church. Mrs. Showers' grandfather was Robert McIlhenny, once an elder in that church.

Election Sidelights

place. Officials jammed the people in the line inside the room and closed the door against any other late comers. Those in the room actually voted after 8 p. m., but were considered official because the "play was in motion" as it were. Because of the jam—some Third ward voters had to wait 45 minutes in line before they could express their preference by ballot. Four hundred and seven persons voted there between 1 and 8 o'clock bringing the total vote cast in that ward to 651.

The Second ward of Gettysburg and the Second precinct of the First ward reported almost simultaneously at 9:35 p. m. By 10:30 p. m.—only an hour and 10 minutes after the first returns arrived—half of the county's 42 districts had reported.

The last Gettysburg district to report was the Third ward which finished its count at 10:45 p. m.

After two hours of a steady flow of county vote results into the court house, only three districts were out at 11:20 p. m. Franklin township reported at 11:21, the Second ward of McSherrystown at 11:25 p. m. and the last district, Cumberland township, came in at 11:35 p. m. to complete the unofficial tally of Tuesday's vote in Adams county.

One local woman lost her vote — it was a blank.

She entered a polling place, received her ballot and then started to talk. She kept on talking, forgot herself and then placed her blank ballot in the ballot box. She tried to persuade the election judge to give her another ballot but was refused.

Norman Thomas, the perennial Socialist candidate was fourth high in Adams County's presidential preferences, getting 30 votes. There were a few votes for Watson, Teichert. Two independent Liberty township voters cast their ballots for "Thurmond—Dixlerat".

The Republicans were better than the Democrats in getting out the Adams county vote. Only 1,297 Republicans failed to vote for Dewey while 2,352 Democrats failed to vote for Truman—of course that figure is not exactly accurate, some Republicans voted for Truman and some Democrats voted for Dewey. The figures are divided by checking the total registration against the vote. There were 9,879 registered Republicans. Dewey got 7,982 votes, leaving at least 1,800 Republicans unaccounted for. The Democrats had 7,759 registered and Truman received 5,405 votes.

All but 970 of Gettysburg's registered voters cast ballots Tuesday. 2,383 votes were cast in the borough, 3,353 were registered. In the First ward, first precinct, where 663 were registered, 506 voted; in the First ward, second precinct with 782 registered, 613 ballots were counted; The Second ward had 613 ballots cast with 981 registered and the Third ward with 927 registered voters had 651 votes cast.

Canners Meet Quincy In Last Home Game Friday

Biglerville high school will conclude its home football season Friday evening by meeting the highly-regarded Quincy Orphanage team on the Biglerville gridiron. The kickoff will be at 8 o'clock.

The game was originally scheduled for Thursday, but was changed to Friday by agreement of the schools. Quincy has a record of five wins against two reverses. The Franklin countians lost to Shippensburg 19-0 and then defeated Dallastown, New Freedom, Patton Trade, Scotland school, Jayvees and Washington Township before losing to the Hanover high junior varsity 7-6.

Coach Eugene Haas' outfit is riding the crest of a four-game winning streak. After losing to Mechanicsburg and Boiling Springs and tying Red Lion, the Cannners hit their stride and scored easy victories over Washington Township, West York, Manheim and Palmyra. Following Thursday's game the Cannners meet Elizabethtown in an important Conference of the Roses game at Elizabethtown on November 12.

Six Will Be Lost
Six Biglerville stars will be appearing in their last home game of their career. Included are Robert Weikert, husky end; Clair Showers, plant tackle; Clyde Naylor, star center; George Weaver, scrappy guard; and Ronald Grim and Carl Rose, hard-running backs.

Quincy's starting lineup is expected to include Whitmore and Zimmerman, ends; Brill and Kauffman, tackles; Burns and Miller, guards; Mentzer, center; Fry, Blubaugh, Swisher and McKinstry, backs. Swisher is rated as the most dangerous of the Quincy ball toters.

Coach Haas is expected to use the following as starters: Slaybaugh and Weikert or Kookan, ends; D. Hollibaugh and H. Hollibaugh, tackles; Weaver and Unger, guards; Naylor, center; Warner, Heller, Grimm and Pitzer, backs.

AMATEUR TIES IN TOURNAMENT

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
Pinehurst, N. C., Nov. 3 (AP)—When a top line performer in golf, or any sport, turns in one of the top performances, it's just something you'd expect. When an outsider does it, that's news.

For that reason, there's a lot more talk here about the chances of Julius Boros and Glenn Teal in the 46th North and South Open tournament than there is about Chick Harbert, Clayton Heafner or Sammy Sneed.

Boros, a Bridgeport, Conn., amateur, whose most notable achievement so far has been leading the nation in the 1948 sectional qualifying tests for the amateur championship, shot his way into a three way tie with Harbert and Teal in yesterday's first round. Each had a four under par 68. Heafner, a tournament veteran, was one stroke back and Sneed had a 70 to trail by two strokes.

Teal, who recently quit a job as assistant pro at the Charlotte, N. C., Country club after serving there about six months, is another stranger to big-time tournament golf. He led the qualifiers here last year with a 68 and recently finished fourth in the Carolinas open. Otherwise he hasn't done much in the tournament line.

ATOMIC UNIT BAN AGAINST REDS ORDERED

Washington, Nov. 3 (AP)—The Atomic Energy commission today ordered the General Electric company to "withdraw and withhold" recognition from the CIO United Electrical workers union in atomic energy plants operated by the company in the Schenectady, N. Y., area.

AEC Chairman David E. Lilienthal told GE President Charles E. Wilson the action was "made necessary" by refusal of union officers to submit to loyalty investigations and their failure to take non-Communist oaths under the Taft-Hartley law.

The union previously had been barred from representing workers at any new A-bomb plants. However, the union still was bargaining agent for the workers at the GE-operated Peeks Street atomic laboratory in Schenectady.

May Oust Union
The commission last month warned the union it would be ousted from atomic plants unless its officers disavowed any links with Communism.

Lilienthal said today the commission has asked the union to take part "in a fuller exploration of the issue" but replies from union officers make it apparent they do not intend to do so. He added:

"In particular it appears that the officers do not intend to answer questions or submit facts concerning their loyalty and their associations with Communist party organizations, as in our view they must do, in their capacity of officers of unions who have wide authority over atomic energy activity personnel."

"Accordingly, the Atomic Energy commission now directs that General Electric company withdraw and withhold recognition from the United Electrical, radio and machine workers of America, CIO, in respect to any employees of General Electric company engaged on work at AEC-owned or AEC-leased installations in the Schenectady area or engaged on atomic work which is defined as classified by the Atomic energy commission and being performed by the General Electric company."

NEVADA STAR SEEKING NEW OFFENSE MARK

New York, Nov. 3 (AP)—Stan Heath, University of Nevada's aerial wizard who cracked the collegiate passing yardage record last week, had his sights set today on the total offense mark.

With six games out of the way and three to go, the Wolfpack quarterback has tossed the pigskin for the amazing total of 1,645 yards to break a 10-year-old passing yardage record. He hit with 13 of 18 passes for 327 yards and five touchdowns Saturday against Oklahoma City.

Figures from the national collegiate athletic bureau showed that Heath needs to get only 544 yards to surpass the total offense mark of 2,187 yards piled up in 1942 by Frank Sinkwich, former Georgia all America. Frankie's total came in 11 games.

10 Top Players
Following are the top 10 players in each offensive category:

Total offense—Heath, Nevada, 1,640 yards; Berry, Texas Christian, 1,062; Justice, North Carolina, 987; Wendt, Texas Mines, 956; Finks, Tulsa, 930; Davis, George Washington, 880; Walthall, West Virginia, 802; Gilman, Kansas, 793; Jensen, California, 790; Faunce, Minnesota, 782.

Rushing—Wendt, Texas Mines, 329; Jensen, California, 686; Van Hoy, Utah State, 682; Stephenson, Army, 662; Papit, Virginia, 632; Thomas, Oklahoma, 615; Stuart, Army, 608; Sikko, Notre Dame, 587; Berry, Texas Christian, 551; C. Scott, Arkansas, 547.

Forward passing—Heath, Nevada, 98 completions in 156 attempts for 1,645 yards; Finks, Tulsa, 74 of 139 for 937; Thomason, V.M.I., 61 of 116 for 815; Walthall, West Virginia, 58 of 107 for 813; Van Brocklin, Oregon, 51 of 99 for 750; Boyda, Washington and Lee, 49 of 101 for 617; Southard, Georgia Tech, 48 of 76 for 771; E. Songin, Boston college, 48 of 92 for 663; Rauch, Georgia, 46 of 95 for 831; Nagel, U.C.L.A., 45 of 84 for 770.

DECISION MAY REST IN HOUSE

Washington, Nov. 3 (AP)—What happens if neither President Truman nor Gov. Dewey wins a majority of the nation's electoral votes—266 out of the 531?

Under the constitution, the House would then choose a president from among the top three leaders, who in the present nip and tuck election are Truman (D), Dewey (R), and Gov. Thurmond, the state's rights Democrat.

Under the law, the newly elected House, which the Democrats apparently will control, would make the decision. (It meets January 3).

Each state would have one vote, with a majority in each state delegation deciding how the state's vote would be cast. The winner must have 25 of the 48 votes.

At 6 a. m., EST, today, the Democrats were assured of control of House delegations in 19 states, Republicans seven, one split, and 21 were in doubt.

If none of the top three gets a majority in the House before January 20, when the constitution provides the new president shall take office, the vice president takes over.

When no candidate for vice president gets a majority of the electoral vote, a vice president is elected by the Senate from the two leaders, who now are Barkley (D) and Warren (R). The winner acts as president until the House chooses one.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

Pinehurst, N. C., Nov. 3 (AP)—The golf experts around here will tell you that the most promising young player to make the tournament circuit this year is Jackie Burke, a transplanted Texan who plays out of White Plains, N. Y.—one thing that's certain, Jackie is trying.

He had a 71 in yesterday's first round of the North and South open then went right out and began practicing his putting. What's more, he has the best pros in the business watching him when he practices. . . . The catch seems to be that Jackie, whose father tied for second place in the 1920 National open, is 24 years old and a war veteran. He's not a kid, in the sense that Bobby Jones was when he reached the semi-final of the National amateur, or that Francis Ouimet and Gene Sarazen were when they won the open at the age of 20. What some of the old-timers want to know is: "Where are the kids who should be making the golf headlines," and if there aren't any, what's to be done to get the small fry interested in golf?

ELECTION NOTE

Freddie Corcoran was following Sammy Sneed around the course yesterday and "naturally" comparing him to Ted Williams. When Slammin' Sam was delayed in a tee, Fred remarked "Well, Dewey is leading." Sneed perked up his ears "Is he," asked Sam. "What'd he go out in?"

PUTT ME NO PUTTS

Hearing that Sammy Sneed has played no tournament golf in six months and that Clayton Heafner, another of yesterday's leaders, had taken a six weeks' vacation, Muscles Stranahan commented that he, too, laid off golf occasionally. Several times this summer I've laid off for a week, said Frankie. Analysis of Sammy Sneed by another pro—who'd better remain anonymous because he may play Sam some time: Sneed has the greatest swing I've ever seen; if he could putt half as well as Ben Hogan and think one third as well, he'd win everything.

Jim Turnesa, who won the North and South open last year with 284, started out with a 71 then. That's just what he shot yesterday.

CLEANING THE CUFF

Mel McGaha, rookie basketball, with the New York Knickerbockers, also is a promising outfielder in the St. Louis Cardinals chain. He hit .360 for Winston-Salem last season. . . . Mel is the guy who'll tell you pro basketball doesn't seem rough after some games he played in Arkansas. . . . Ray Bray of the Chicago Bears is considering an offer from one of the heavyweight wrestling circuits. Would it be unkind to say a lot of the grapplers look as if they might Bray any time? . . . Story around here is that Elmer Costa, North Carolina State freshman footballer, quit a $110 a week job in Paterson, N. J., to play "purity" football.

N.Y. GOVERNOR SNARES STATE BY CLOSE VOTE

New York, Nov. 3 (AP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey squeaked through in his home state with the closest margin for a Presidential race in recent Empire state history.

On the basis of almost complete unofficial returns, the Republican nominee's edge over President Truman was 38,410 votes in yesterday's astonishing balloting in New York state.

With 9,939 of 9,959 election districts in the state tabulated, the unofficial tally gave Dewey 2,833,175, Truman 2,794,765 and Henry A. Wallace, Progressive party, 507,449.

The 20 missing districts all were in normally Republican upstate counties. It was necessary to go back 60 years in New York state to find a closer race than the one between the two major party candidates this year. In 1888 Benjamin Harrison defeated Grover Cleveland by 14,373.

Truman Strength Amazing

The next closest battle in recent years was in 1928 when Herbert Hoover edged out Al Smith by 103,481.

Truman's showing in the state was an amazing one in the face of predictions by most political observers that he would lose the state by at least 300,000. Some enthusiastic Republicans had claimed victory by a million votes.

The President's dogged campaign against the 80th Congress apparently paid off in New York's new Con-

Letter to the Editor

Dear Sir:
I am a veteran of World War II, and I feel that a lot of other veterans feel the same way I do. During the war we were away from our homes and our loved ones fighting to save this country, the people in it, and the rights and privileges of these people. Now that we are home, the ones of us that were lucky enough to come back, things are getting back to normal again. We go out to do a little small game hunting when we get time off from our jobs, and what do we run into?

The Democrats picked up eight Congressional seats in yesterday's balloting, seven at the expense of the GOP and one from an American Labor party member.

The victories will give the Democrats 23 seats in the new Congress to 21 Republicans and one ALP representative, Vito Marcantonio, who was re-elected. In the 80th Congress, there were 28 Republicans from New York, 15 Democrats and two ALP members.

Does Stomach Gas and Bloat Make You Feel Miserable?

If so, here is how you may get blessed relief in freeing your stomach from this nervous distress. It works this way: Everything food enters the stomach a vital gastric juice must flow normally to break-up certain food particles; else the food may ferment. Sour food, acid indigestion and gas frequently cause a morbid, touchy, fretful, peevish, nervous condition, loss of appetite, underweight, restless sleep, weakness.

To get real relief you must increase the flow of this vital gastric juice. Medical authorities, in independent laboratory tests on human stomachs, have by positive proof shown that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in increasing this flow when it is too little or sticky due to a non-organic stomach disturbance. This is due to the SSS Tonic formula which contains special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, SSS Tonic helps build-up non-organic, weak, watery blood in nutritional anemia—so with a good flow of this gastric digestive juice, plus rich red food you should eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better.

Avoid punishing yourself with over-loads of soda and other alkalis to contract gas and bloating when what you so dearly need is SSS Tonic to help you digest food for body strength and health. Don't wait! Join the host of happy people SSS Tonic has helped. Millions of bottles sold. Get a bottle of SSS Tonic from your drug store today. SSS Tonic helps build sturdy health.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

War Scenes Portrayed Before Students: Lowell Thomas, soldier and world traveler, will present an illustrated lecture in the Majestic theater Monday morning on the campaigns of Lawrence and Allenby in the east during the world war. The motion pictures and slides are the only records of the activities of the Allied forces against the Turks. College, academy, and high school students are invited to attend the lecture.

Buy Property on High Street: Nicholas Redding, South street, purchased at public auction Saturday afternoon the property at 59 West High street offered by William F. Redding as the executor of the estate of the late Mary A. Kumerant. The price paid was $2,700.

St. James Lutheran Church Is Destroyed by Fire: St. James Lutheran church was destroyed by fire Wednesday morning, with estimates of the loss ranging from $100,000 to $150,000.

While the exact origin of the fire will probably never be known, it is believed to have started in the organ from a short circuit of some of the hundreds of electric wires used in the instrument.

The fire was discovered about 5:30 o'clock by Floyd Bittle, York street, who was on his way to work.

A call for the Gettysburg fire department was put in by the Rev. Mr. Bowman about 5:45 o'clock. About an hour after the fire was discovered, the Rev. Mr. Bowman put in a call for the Biglerville fire company.

The firemen worked diligently. The chill of the early morning and the fact that many of them were drenched with water chilled them "to the bone," and hot coffee and sandwiches, prepared at the parsonage and by the family of William F. Codori, York street, were served.

Y. W. Secretary Assumes Office: Miss Ann MacFarlane, of Duluth, Minnesota, recently elected secretary of the Adams County Young Women's Christian Association, arrived in Gettysburg Thursday morning, and was greeted by local officers. She is the successor of Miss Metta Mitchell, who has matriculated at the University of Illinois.

Mummers of Gettysburg Enjoy Annual Procession: Masqueraded and costumed throngs of children and grown-ups frisked and frolicked in Gettysburg's annual Halloween parade Wednesday evening.

While the mummers paraded over the main streets of town to the strains of music played by the Boys' and Citizens' bands, hundreds of persons lined the streets, cheering and throwing confetti.

Occupies New Home: Ray M. Hoffman and family moved Thursday from their home on Chambersburg street to their new home on Howard avenue.

Robert Bream, Miss A. Miller Married: Miss Edith Annetta Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Miller, East Middle street, and Robert Dale Bream, son of Mrs. Blanche Bream, Cashown, were married Saturday morning at 9 o'clock at the St. James Lutheran church parsonage. The ring ceremony of the Lutheran church was performed by the Rev. Earl J. Bowman.

Hoffman Hotel Is Sold to Luther I. Sachs: Announcement of the sale of the Hoffman hotel property, York street, to Luther I. Sachs, Hanover street contractor, was announced Saturday by Howard C. Mitinger, manager of the hotel, and vice-president and secretary of the Hoffman Hotel company, which has owned and operated the hotel since 1919.

A hotel has been located on the site of the Hoffman hotel for more than 90 years, according to records. For many years the hostelry was known as the Globe hotel.

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS
SIGNS

Someone should write a book upon "Signs." How interesting it would be! The author could go back to the very earliest of times and gather a mass of material that would keep any of us up late at night, delighting in such a curious lore.

The old Inn signs, the road signs, book shop signs, and the numberless town signs that made the early days so full of glamour and romance.

The world is a network of signs. Nature is a garden of them. The beauty and color of the rose—a sign to attract people to it, as if to say: "Here I am in all my velvety and colorful robes. Am I not beautiful? Scent my fragrance—and love me!"

Walk through the great mountain regions and there you will see the signs of ages long dead and gone, but pregnant with the most fascinating history. I once rode through the Mark Twain and Bret Harte country in California. Everywhere signs of their footsteps and wanderings and adventurous travels were pointed out to me. Signs that suggested struggle and long waiting for recognition.

Every man, woman and child has signs about him or her that tell to the observer the type and sort of individual who lives within that flesh. What we are is a much greater sign to the world than anything we are able to say.

The bursting buds, the sprouting bulbs and the greening grass are signs of the wedding march of Spring.

In a man's book are the signs of the man's soul—signs that many years took to create, and often that many years fall to reveal.

I look upon a lovely tapestry or a painting, or a piece of sculpture, and I see therein the signs of the creator's art as he sought to express his inborn love. In delicate planes and in color, you are reminded of patient fingers and long days and nights that were condensed to give forth beauty to the many. We must not forget that sorrow and sufferings, privation and discouragement, pave the roads that happiness later treads.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Books and Reading."

News Of Interest To Upper Communities Of County

Bendersville National And Cashier Kuhn Featured In Country Gentleman Article

Upper Adams countians today are boasting because one of their native sons had been praised on the pages of a national magazine.

Lloyd W. Kuhn, cashier of the Bendersville National bank, and the bank itself are the subjects of a favorable story appearing in the November Country Gentleman, the nation's biggest farmer publication.

Entitled "Community-Service Bank," the article, written by Buckley Maits, quotes Adams County Farm Agent M. T. Hartman, Oscar H. Benson, and Mr. Kuhn concerning the activities of the bank.

No Sheriff's Services
Reciting the history of the bank, Maits said: "Back in 1908, when the bank got its charter, the original 20 stockholders were mostly farmers or retired farmers, who didn't like to travel all the way south by buggy to Biglerville (3 miles away) or historic Gettysburg (10 miles away) to do their banking. The moving spirit behind its organization was a swashbuckling little country doctor, James G. Stover, who had found time out from his medical practice to make a fortune in fruit and became known as the apple king of Adams county."

Maits points out that "the cashier hasn't found any reason to see the sheriff about any farm-mortgage unpleasantness for well over ten years. And ten years covers some ups and downs in the south-central Pennsylvania fruit-and-dairy country where the bank gets most of its customers."

"Perhaps you might think that the Bendersville bank has been a little tight with its money. But this isn't the case, either.

Cite Depression Policy
"When the depression set in, the bank sold most of the corporation bonds in its vault so that it could concentrate on lending 'operating' money to its customers in Bendersville (population 400) and to farmers within a radius of five or ten miles, who together, account for most of its business. Many bankers might have shaken their heads at such a 'risky' step, but the Bendersville board of directors decided that they would rise or fall with their community.

"Despite its liberal loan policy now and before this war, the Bendersville bank has never had a 'run,' never had to reorganize and never had to issue preferred stock as so many small banks did to weather the depression. All through hard times it paid interest regularly on its deposits and only twice passed a dividend to its stockholders."

Maits points out in the article that the step of selling corporation bonds proved finally to be very profitable to the bank. If it had held on to the bonds it would eventually have lost $75,000 on them.

Not Always Rosy
The Country Gentleman author points out that "Although Kuhn didn't start to work at the bank until 1919, he has had better opportunity than most to know its history from the beginning. Doctor Stover, the founder, interviewed six applicants for the job with the bank in 1919 and twice wrote to the Business College at Lancaster, where Kuhn was enrolled asking him to take the job. Kuhn came back and learned the business from the doctor, who by then had become a good enough banker himself to make the bank pay dividends.

"But things hadn't always been rosy for the little bank on the square. When it first started operations in 1909 in a rented room across the street from its present location, it had a charter, a safe and $25,000 in capital. H. J. Taylor, the first cashier and only full-time employee, was paid $40 a month.

"Moreover the top limit Mr. Taylor could lend to any one person was a slim $2,500. All he had to do was meet competition from about a dozen other banks in the county.

One, the Gettysburg National, had been in business long before Abraham Lincoln came there to deliver his Gettysburg Address.

Rapid Progress
"In ten years, though, the Bendersville bank not only started paying dividends to its stockholders but had, by 1913, built itself an

"Since then, the bank has blossomed into today's modern, air-conditioned, limestone-and-granite building—its worth more than twice the bank's original capitalization. Deposits have risen to more than $1,600,000.

"Kuhn became cashier in 1928, the third in the bank's history."

The article points out that "Another one of Kuhn's boosters is O. H. Benson, the tall, gray-haired man who is known the country over in 4-H circles as a pioneering leader in boys' and girls' club work. Now that Benson is retired and lives most of the year in a house on the Lincoln highway, near Gettysburg, he devotes much of his time to farmers' community activities in Adams county.

"In recent times, one of his jobs was to pass on local farm loans for the Government's Farmers' Home Administration—an organization which supervises and guarantees bank loans to farmers who feel they can't get money for five per cent or less from existing credit agencies. But Benson says he didn't have much work on this job. Most loans he was willing to approve, Kuhn would approve also—without the government guaranty.

The article also quotes County Agent Hartman as saying of the Bendersville bank that it is "a farmers' bank if I ever saw one."

"In person," Maits says, "Kuhn is a lean, angular man who likes to keep a good supply of cigars handy. He looks something like the popular idea of a high school principal and actually did teach school in the county for a short while after he graduated from Arendtsville high."

Maits concluded his article as follows: "If things tighten up again and the rising tide of farm costs catches up to farm prices, as many in the fruit-growing business think it may soon do, what then?"

"Well," Kuhn says that maybe then he and the county agent may need to go into a huddle on ways and means to get farmers and bankers together in meetings so that money won't freeze in Adams county.

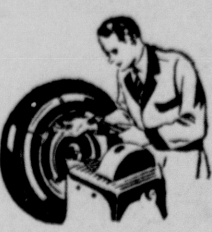

"But farmers around Bendersville don't seem worried about the money question, even though many think the fruit business is shaky now. They feel safe either as borrowers or depositors. Their bank may not be organized like a farm co-operative but it comes close to operating like one.

"As Kuhn once told two ladies who worriedly stopped him on the street during the worst bank-closing days of the depression: 'Whether this bank remains open is up to you people. We run it as a co-operative proposition for the community—not as an investment trust for the benefit of Wall Street.'"

The article is illustrated with a picture of the bank and another of Kuhn at his desk in the bank.

Interesting News Of Upper Adams Countians And Their Enterprises

CANNED FOODS ARE BEST BUY, FIGURES SHOW

Adams county and other food processing centers throughout the U. S. are giving the average housewife the best post-war bargain she can buy.

That was the opinion expressed today by John A. Hauser, president of the C. H. Musselman company and other local canners. They based their argument on the Federal government's price index.

The Biglerville processor said that the National Canners' Association in commenting on release of the official Bureau of Labor statistics "cost of living" price index pointed out that the index for canned fruits and vegetables not only is lower than the index for cost of living items in general—including foods, clothing and shelter.

Canned Goods Best Buy
The Bureau of Labor Statistics reports that as of September 15, the date covered by its most recent report, the cost of living had risen to 174.5 per cent of the prewar base period 1935-39. In the same report the retail prices of all foods were shown to be 215.2 per cent. Canned fruit and vegetable prices, at only 159 per cent of prewar, were shown to be Mrs. Housewife's best buy.

The wide range in food products, with fresh meat, poultry and fish at the top and canned fruits and vegetables on the bottom, is shown in the following BLS price indexes for September:

Chicks Need Room—Good housing and ample floor space are needed by fall and winter chicks, says F. H. Leuschner, extension poultry specialist of the Pennsylvania State college. Since they will be confined to the house most of their lives, the chicks need ventilation, floor space, and good litter for health and growth.

Limit Feed Buying—Because feed prices may drop, farmers are urged to keep feed purchase commitments to a short-term basis, W. F. Johnstone, extension agricultural economist of the Pennsylvania State college, reports that December usually is the month of heaviest flow of corn into the grain markets.

Get Soils Ready—Prepare soils now for growing young plants during the winter or early next spring. J. O. Dutt, extension vegetable specialist of the Pennsylvania State college, suggests adding lime and fertilizer when the soil is being piled or turned the first time.

Control Cattle Lice—Treat cattle for lice on a warm, sunny day. S. G.

Gesell, Penn State extension entomologist, recommends spraying with one pound of 50 per cent DDT wettable powder in 10 gallons of water. About one gallon of spray will be needed for each animal.

Plan Strawberry Planting—Order strawberry plants for early spring delivery and put them in the ground as soon as weather and soil conditions permit.

Store Sweet Potatoes—Buy the home supply of sweet potatoes now and place permanently in baskets. Cure near the furnace for three or four weeks. Then store in a cooler part of the basement at about 50 degrees and keep covered to hold remaining moisture.

Market Fall Honey—Fall-produced comb honey should be marketed before the spring crop, if any is left, since it usually crystallizes more quickly, says W. W. Clarke, extension apiculturist of the Pennsylvania State college. Keep it stored in a dry place with a temperature of about 70 degrees Fahrenheit until marketed.

Treat Sheep for Ticks—Use four pounds of 50 per cent DDT wettable powder in 100 gallons of water forced into the fleece with a driving spray for control of sheep ticks or dust of five per cent DDT dust. Treat before cold weather arrives.

Control Rats on Farm—Rats move into farm buildings for feed and shelter with approach of cold weather. This is the time to kill them with poison bait. Every rat killed is worth $3 in feed and food saved.

Store Root Crops—The winter supply of root crops may be stored in a trench in a well-drained spot. Fill the trench with roots, cover with hay, straw, or leaves, and cover them with soil. Add more layers as needed.

Kill Mice in Orchards—Poison bait can be used to kill mice in orchards, according to C. S. Bittner, extension fruit specialist of the Pennsylvania State college. Ask your county agent for details.

Both the Dominican Republic and Spain claim to have the remains of Christopher Columbus buried within their borders.

Harrisburg, Nov. 2, (AP)—The Dauphin County Clean Elections committee will use a fleet of taxicabs to check on possible vote frauds in today's general election.

The Harrisburg Patriot and Evening News has arranged to provide the bi-partisan committee with the vehicles. The cabs were also offered for use by voters wishing to report on election frauds. The move followed by an incident here last spring when one Harrisburg precinct turned in more votes than it had registrants.

REPUBLICANS KEEP CONTROL IN LEGISLATURE

Harrisburg, Nov. 3 (AP)—The Pennsylvania General Assembly remained in Republican control today but election upsets relaxed the party's grip in the lower house.

The line-up was 116 Republicans—11 more than a constitutional majority of 105—and 91 Democrats. One seat in Clearfield county was undecided. Two years ago it was 170-38.

Contrariwise, the GOP now has more votes in the upper branch than anytime since the advent of the new deal. Victory in 15 contests and 20 holdover Senators gave them 35 votes to 15 of the Democrats. The latter won 11 seats to add to its four holdover members. In 1947, it was 34-16.

Democrat Defeated
Jerome J. Jaspian, Philadelphia Democrat, was the only Senate incumbent of either party to be defeated.

Voters of Philadelphia and Allegheny county were mostly responsible for the slender Republican majority in the lower house Gov. James H. Duff will have during his last two years in office—usually the most difficult for Pennsylvania governors.

In Philadelphia, 27 Democratic and 14 Republican legislators were elected in place of the 32-2 line-up in 1947 in favor of the GOP. Allegheny county also named 21 Democrats and six Republicans instead of the 11 Democrats and 16 Republicans of two years ago.

The Democrats also made clean sweeps in Cambria, Beaver, Washington and Westmoreland counties and elected all but one of the legislators from Lackawanna county.

The new Legislature faces the problem of finding more money to continue Governor Duff's programs for mental hospital expansion, the Schuylkill river cleanup, teacher salary boosts, new highways and financing of a proposed $400,000,000 soldiers' bonus.

And the drop in Republican strength came when taxes are almost certain to be the number one controversy.

Democrats already are on record as against the new soft drink levy, a key part of the 1947 Republican tax program. This, cigarette and beer taxes and levies on corporations must be renewed by the Legislature or they lapse automatically May 31, 1949.

Despite the setbacks, however, it was a victory day for Legislative leaders on both sides. GOP State Chairman M. Harvey Taylor won a third term in the Senate where he is president by a big margin; Acting Speaker Herbert P. Sorg, of St. Marys, had no opposition.

situation was unprecedented. Numerous Republicans clung somewhat forlornly to dying hopes that Dewey still might win, but most of the others, including many party leaders, were philosophical. "If the Democrats have control of Congress, they might as well have the presidency, and stand or fall by what they do in the next four years," was a comment often heard.

National League Umpire Bill Stewart had a pitching trial with the Chicago White Sox in 1919. Before the season opened he injured his arm in a fall.

YOU WOMEN WHO SUFFER HOT FLASHES then FEEL CHILLY-

Here's Good News!

Are you between the ages of 38 and 52 and going through that trying functional "middle-age" period peculiar to women? Does this make you suffer from hot flashes, feel clammy, so nervous, irritable, weak? Then try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to relieve such symptoms! It's famous for this! Many wise "middle-age" women take Pinkham's Compound regularly to help build up resistance against this distress. Pinkham's Compound contains no opiates—no habit-forming drugs. It helps nature (you know what we mean!). This great medicine also has what Doctors call a stomachic tonic effect. NOTE: Or you may prefer LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S TABLETS with added iron.

One look!... One ride!... You'll know it's... the modern design for '49 new Hudson

Come in, see the car that's years ahead—drive the New Hudson—experience the amazing roadability, comfort and safety of the only car you step down into!

Here's your chance to get the thrill of a real discovery—to see and feel what one of the great advances in motor-car history offers you.

You'll see a Hudson of distinguished, streamlined beauty and low-built silhouette that is instantly recognizable because it is the natural result of a basically new design principle—a principle that puts this car so far ahead it is a protected investment in motor-car value! The key to this new design principle is a recessed floor. The New Hudson is the only car you step down into!

By using a "step-down" zone in an exclusive, all steel Monobilt Body-and-frame, Hudson achieves the lowest car on the highway—only five feet from ground to top—while maintaining more head room than in any mass-produced car built today! But no amount of looking at this amazing car—beautiful as it is—can equal the thrill of a Hudson ride! And you are invited to enjoy that ride today! Hudson has a smooth, hug-the-road way of going in cross-winds and on every conceivable kind of highway. When you see the way it takes even the sharpest curves, you'll know once again that this car has "The modern design for '49"—and for years to come!

Hudson's remarkable ride is largely due to the fact that its "step-down" design provides the lowest center of gravity in any American stock car—yet road clearance is ample! It is a widely recognized fact that the lower to the ground a car can be built, the more stability it will have and the safer it will be.

You sense a delightful conformity to the road the minute you begin your ride, and this stability, plus the protection of riding encircled by a sturdy box-section steel frame, is a grand experience in serene, safe well-being.

This grand feeling is further heightened by the remarkable ease with which this car is controlled. You enjoy this generous roominess in complete relaxation as the New Hudson glides smoothly along.

We cordially invite you to see and drive the New Hudson, to thoroughly enjoy the ride that comes only with "The modern design for '49!"

HUDSON FLOORS are recessed down within the frame (as shown above), seats are lowered, so you get more than ample head room in this car with the new, lower center of gravity.

YOU RIDE DOWN within a base frame (as shown above), and rear seats are positioned ahead of the rear wheels so that full body width becomes available for wonderfully roomy seats. Box-section steel girders completely encircle and protect the passenger compartment.

TRY AUTOMATIC GEAR SHIFTING in forward speeds as provided by Hudson's Drive-Master transmission—by far the easiest of all ways to drive. You can accelerate as long and as fast as you like in pick-up gear, then lift your toe momentarily, and you're in high. The shift into high comes only when you are ready! Button control on the instrument panel provides instant change to conventional driving if ever desired. Drive-Master transmission is optional on all New Hudsons at small extra cost.

The only car you step down into

TRUMAN HIDES ELECTION EVE; UP EARLY TODAY

Kansas City, Nov. 3 (AP)—President Truman, who fought a 31,500-mile battle the dopesters said he couldn't win, appeared suddenly at his penthouse quarters in the Hotel Muehlebach early today.

He spent election night in Excelsior Springs, Mo.

His press secretary, Charles G. Ross, said the President spent the night at the Elms hotel and woke up only twice to hear news broadcasts of the election returns.

He drove in from Excelsior Springs to the Kansas City hotel about 7:45 a. m. (EST) to have breakfast. He said he would have a statement later.

Whatever the outcome, he had upset the calculations of the public opinion samplers, to bear out his prediction that they would be among the most "red-faced" people in the country this morning.

"Aroused Voters"

And, he felt that his 351 speeches in cross-country campaigns from June to last Monday had aroused the voters to change the complexion of Congress by replacing Republicans with "liberal" Democrats.

The Republican-controlled Congress had been the principal target of his day and night campaigning in every section of the country.

And, while he boasted from the stump of Democratic victory when the going appeared rough, no word came from the "give 'em hell" campaigner as he held to his lead over Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, the GOP nominee, as state after state rolled up Democratic margins.

Word went out that he left his 14-room home on North Delaware street early last night.

He just "disappeared."

When crowds clamored for him last night, his daughter, Margaret, told them she did not know where he was.

He didn't appear at Presidential penthouse quarters in Kansas City's Muehlebach hotel where high speed press association printers brought in the returns.

Reports Are Relayed

Reporters were there, talking over developments with Presidential Press Secretaries Charles G. Ross and Matthew J. Connelly and other associates of the Chief Executive.

There, too, was Tom Evans, big, gray-haired drug store executive and radio chain operator. He would pull the returns from the printer and disappear into the big living room of the President.

Telephone reports were relayed to the President.

But where he received them—that was the mystery. Ross wouldn't say. The President, he declared, "is entitled to a night to himself."

And then, about 5 a. m. (EST) Ross related enough to say the President had retired and that there would be no statement from his quarters.

REJECT LIBRARY PLAN

Kittanning, Pa., Nov. 3 (AP)—A proposal to establish a county library was rejected 3,776 to 2,872 by Armstrong county voters yesterday. A companion proposal to levy a half-mill assessment to support the library was defeated 4,446 to 1,981.

The first time gas was used for street lighting was in London in 1807.

Who Polled The Wool Over Eyes Of Grand Old Party?

New York, Nov. 3 (AP)—Republicans who stayed up all night at national headquarters to celebrate looked at dawn today like haggard brides left waiting at the church.

It was so quiet around the Hotel Roosevelt that you could hear a pool-taker's chin drop.

But if there was a pool-taker in the place he wisely kept his mouth shut. There were no Republican chins any longer able even to fall open. They had all done that hours before.

It was a scene of political carnage over which spread the lengthening shadow cast by the little man from Missouri. Harry S. Truman, stubbornly riding out threats of a Republican landslide, had lived up to the tough motto of his state—"You Got To Show Me."

The tidal flood of Democratic votes completely ruined the Grand Old Party's brand new victory party. It was a Manhattan version of the eve before Waterloo.

Some 300 happy party workers crowded into the gold ballroom of the hotel, confident they would see a Democratic debacle.

A score or more television and newsreel cameras were trained on the flag-draped balcony, where Gov. Thomas E. Dewey was expected to deliver his victory speech before midnight. Rumor said his aides had composed the speech two days ago.

The crowd stirred uneasily as early returns showed Truman ahead. But they cheered when Campaign Manager Herbert Brownell, grinning widely, stepped out on the gallery and minimized the figures—again predicting victory. It was the last grin of the evening.

Some Republicans left then, sure Dewey had won. But they were probably the only ones who got a good night's rest.

Seoul, Nov. 3 (AP)—South Korea's second army-bred uprising in 13 days yesterday resulted in death to 14 persons and injury to 10 more at Taegu in the southeastern section of the country.

Ten civilians and four policemen were killed in the fighting.

The Korean army said the outbreak came when 20 rebels seized a textile mill on the outskirts of Taegu and stood off police who attacked.

A high American source disclosed today that most of the rebels sur-
